I typed in ‘dictionary.com’ into Google, to specifically look up the meaning of a word and look where I ended up The internet is a strange place, isn’t it? Who cares where the letter z came from? You people who sit on your computers all day, writing articles that nobody cares about

Lipitor (atorvastatin) is a prescribed medicine that works by obstructing the manufacturing of cholesterol in the body as a result reducing the risk of a heart stroke, type and strike 2 diabetes

With havin so much content and articles do you ever run into any issues of plagorism or copyright infringement? My blog has a lot of completely unique content I’ve either written myself or outsourced but it appears a lot of it is popping it up all over the web without my permission
